

New York City Family Resource Directory
Services for Children with emotional and behavioral challenges

There is light at the end of the tunnel!!!

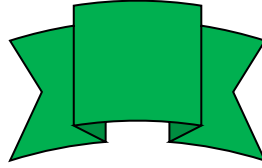

Welcome to the Family Resource Guide of the NYC Region NYS Office of Mental Health. We are committed to providing the best care possible for the children and families that we serve within the five boroughs of NYC. We offer many services and supports within the community to strengthen our children and families. If you are having problems identifying services or need help advocating for your child please feel free to contact one of our city wide parent advisors Bernadine Meeks or Christina Richburg at 212-330-1650 or visit our website at omh.ny.gov. for a list of our clinics.

There are nine family resource Centers located throughout the five boroughs of NYC. These Resource Centers are run by family members that have children with behavioral and mental health or other disabilities. The resource Centers are staffed by family and youth advocates who run support groups, parenting and anger management classes and other activities that can assist in providing support to your family. For more information please feel free to reach out to any of the FRC's in your community.

Community Residences

Community Residences provide a supervised, therapeutic environment for six to eight children or adolescents, between the ages of 5 and 18 years, that includes structured daily living activities, problem solving skills development and caring adult interactions. These residences are located in the community and are in all five boroughs. The programs are OMH licensed and run by nonprofit organizations with OMH field office staff monitoring to insure that the programs meet licensing and regulatory requirements.

All referrals for OMH Community Residences must be made through Children’s C-SPOA

Home & Community Based Waiver Services

Home and Community Based Waiver Services were developed to enable children with a diagnosis of serious emotional and behavioral needs to remain at home or in the community with individualized services for themselves and their families. These services include individualized care coordination, crisis response services, intensive in home services, respite, family support services and skill building services. All referrals for the home and community based waiver must be made through Children's CSPOA 1-888-277-6258.

NYC Intensive Case Management Services for Children & Youth

The intensive case management program is designed to assist seriously emotionally disturbed children and youth and their families in the community. A specially trained case manager will develop a comprehensive service plan to assess and coordinate supports and services to help the child live at home and stay in the community. The case manager will work very closely with the child's school and other professionals to insure that the needs of the child and family are being addressed. Referrals for Intensive Case Management are made through Children's CSPOA 1-888-277-6258.

Residential Treatment Facilities

When a child is identified as having a significant mental health challenge with multiple hospitalizations and the child cannot be maintained in a community or home based setting Residential treatment may be more appropriate. Referrals should be sent to the regional field office for review by the (PACC) Pre- Admission Certification Committee. The PACC determines whether RTF level of care is appropriate for the child. The coordinator notifies the referral source about the PACC decision and, if accepted, the child and care giver should tour the residential program

PACC coordinator: Barbara Profitt NYS OMH 330 Fifth Ave. NYNY 10001 212-330-6371

The RTF level of care is considered a short term residential intervention, not a placement. The expected length of stay is 3-9 months.
