Sponsor & Exhibitor Prospectus

Join Youth Power in empowering, educating, and connecting a new generation of social justice and civil rights leaders.

We hope you will join us as a sponsor or vendor for the 2023 University of Youth Power, It Starts With Us: Redefining the Status Quo, youth-led social-justice conference for ages 18-30, that is modeled after the college experience.

Your generous support will ensure the full vision and potential of this event are realized. Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, youth have been struggling with remote learning, increased anxiety, and an entirely new way of interacting with peers, family, and school/community support.

Now more than ever their collective voice needs to be heard.
